

Berkshire Mountain Bakery

Richard Bourdon brought his passion for Old World style baking to the Berkshires in 1986. Originally from Quebec, Richard settled in Housatonic, where he opened his Berkshire Mountain Bakery in an historic former paper mill. The bakery uses wholesome high-quality, organic ingredients and the natural sourdough process to produce spectacular breads and other baked goods. Richard and his 17 happy employees all live in the Berkshires

Sourdough Pizzas

Pizzas are made with the bakery's famous crust, hand-stretched and hearth-baked. Unbleached organic white flour, filtered water, natural sourdough starter for leavening and unrefined sea salt.

Mix and match varieties. 9" Pizza, delivered frozen.

• $8.00 each / 3 for $22.00 •
